Spring Valley Incorporation Drive May See A Revival

The drive for incorporation for Spring Valley may come back to life sooner than anyone expected.

Donald E. Mills, a La Presa Colony resident, told this newspaper last week that members of the La Presa Better Government Committee which he heads are considering organizing an incorporation move.

But not for all of Spring Valley. Said Mills: "We don't want Northern Spring Valley in on this. Our proposed five-year incorporation would include only the new developments in the La Presa section (South Spring Valley)."

Ed Fackler, La Presa real estate man and a major property owner there, said the time is premature for incorporation. But he agreed that if the South Spring Valley area ever does incorporate, it would be a mistake to include North Spring Valley.

MEETINGS MIGHT START

Mills said the idea is "only under consideration" but that the Better Government Committee would commence incorporation meetings and petitioning if the County Board of Supervisors does not comply with the Committee's wishes on zoning in La Presa.

He said that 95 per cent of La Presa Colony residents had signed a recent Better Government Committee petition which would restrict the commercial zoning in the area. The petition is under advisement by the County Board of Supervisors, Mills said.

Commented Mills last week: "We don't feel that the County Board of Supervisors is concerned with us. In our area is between $20-30 million worth of housing development that we want protected as a residential community. It's up to us local citizens to do this."

TEMPORARY CITY

Under consideration, said Mills, is a five-year incorporation program under the Lake-wood Plan. After five years, the government would revert back to what it is, could be changed, or the incorporation could be extended.

Fackler said that the recent anti-incorporation petition circulated in La Presa section, or South Spring Valley, came up with the signatures of more than 50 per cent of the residents, including that of Donald E. Mills.

This petition concerned incorporation of all Spring Valley, and Mills' prospective incorporation plan includes only South Spring Valley.

"I have full confidence that the Board of Supervisors will do the proper thing in La Presa," Fackler said, "and that it's completely unnecessary to counter them through incorporation. I feel that no one has more insight into the needs of La Presa section than David Bird himself."

C of C Honors Paul

William B. Paul, manager of the U. S. National Bank in Lemon Grove for the past five years, was honored Tuesday by the L.G. chamber of commerce directors.

Paul is being promoted to the firm's larger branch on El Cajon Blvd. Officers of the downtown office were in surprise attendance at the luncheon which highlighted the chamber's regular meeting. Robert Dryden succeeds Paul as manager.

In other business, Edwin Koester, chamber manager, said he had obtained more than 50 per cent of signatures of all property owners on Broadway's proposed lighting district. Sixty per cent is required. Koester said that he will seek 70 per cent for a safety margin.

Sam Pernicano reported that ticket sales for the chamber's barbecue were slow. The event is to be held Sept. 16 at the junior high school cafeteria. The Ed LaSalle family are supplying a steer for barbecuing free of charge. Jim Bear, new co-owner of Bear State Ice Cream Parlor offered to supply donuts for the dinner.

The chamber endorsed a Mt. Miguel high school job-training program proposed by principal Mel Grant.

62 KIDS WANT THEIR GOLDEN-RULE DAYSHERE

WANTED, RANCHO SCHOOL—Symbolizing the determination of parents of 62 children of Spring Valley Estates, insurance man Verne Watts points at the school they want their children to attend. When parents started trying to register their children at the school, which is right in their own neighborhood, they were told that the kids would have to go to Chula Vista to get educated. This would mean a 10-mile bus ride both ways. Parents named Watts their spokesman, got up a petition which went before the County Board of Education on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The problem is a tough one because the families in that part of Spring Valley Estates actually are in Chula Vista school district. Staff photo.

Free Rent Given Retarded Group; Polio Clinics Set

The goal of the East County Chapter for Retarded Children has been helped along lately with the receiving of free rent on a building in El Cajon City, according to Mrs. Mary Holland, Lemon Grove chairman of the chapter.

It is located at 196 Copley st. in El Cajon City and will serve as a center for the children until permanent headquarters are established.

Of the chapter's ultimate goal of $35,000 for building a center, $5,500 has been gained since June 29, Mrs. Holland said. That was the date on which the organization started a series of "coffees" to raise funds.

Polio clinics will be held for six Fridays starting Sept. 8 at the El Cajon Center on Copley st. They will be from 6:30-8 p.m. and proceeds will go toward the center. Cost for the shots are $1.

Builder Wins Over Planning Commish

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A zoning variance to permit development of a L.G. subdivision was approved Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors, reversing the action of the County Planning Commission.

The applicant was Fred Brauer, who asked to be allowed to build 40 feet from the center line of Drexel drive, instead of the required 50 feet. The lots are about 325 feet east of Skyline drive.

The owner said the houses would be far enough back to provide parking in the driveway without cars being on the sidewalks. He pointed out that S.D. City allows building that close to the street.

The vote to over-ride the planning commission denial of the variance was unanimous.

Sheriff Seeking San Altos Wall Defacing 'Artist'

An unknown artist who is prostituting his ability by using it for lewd and obscene purposes, left a trail of his talent last week on walls and autos in the San Altos area of Lemon Grove.

At the San Altos shopping center at San Pasqual and Main sts., he left a panorama of nude figures six feet high using the center's 70 foot wall as his canvas.

Under the figures obscene words were printed so neatly that the sheriff's unit investigating complaint believed the artist experienced in doing lettering.

The painting was done in red by a spray device. The decoration was discovered by Albert Ibarra of 7380 San Pasqual who notified the L.G. fire department. Firemen covered the wall with tarpaulins and stationed a guard until Art Leitch, the realtor in charge of the property, could dispatch a company painter to obliterate the paintings.

Later, complaints from other residents of the San Altos Terrace area began to come in. Six others reported being victims of the red paint artist.

Charles R. Kidd, USN, 1547 San Altos pl., reported obscene words sprayed on his garage door. Mrs. Rachel Finch, 1565 San Altos pl., got a two-inch stripe of red paint sprayed the entire length of her auto parked at the curb.

George Zimmerman, 1624 San Altos pl., had a "For Sale" sign sprayed on the hood of his car. Loomis Glass Service, 1587 San Altos pl., reported

Youths Say They Had No Part In Bottle Tossing

Greg Emery, 16, of 2109 Bonita st., L.G., said this week that he was not involved in the bottle tossing charge which resulted in damage to the vehicle belonging to Henry Reib, of 2268 Bonita st., last week.

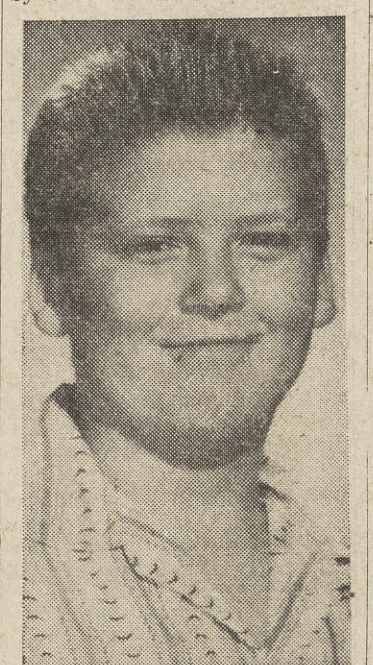

John Burich Jr., 2033 Bonita st., also said that he had no part in the affair.

Sheriff's department men said that an empty pop bottle was tossed from a car window and hit Reib's car.

A suspect has been apprehended and remanded to Juvenile Hall.

Bike-Car Collision Injures Teenagers

A Spring Valley bicyclist, 16-year-old Thomas L. Kitzmiller, is recovering from injuries suffered when his bike was struck by a car in Lemon Grove on

Thomas L. Kitzmiller

Wed., Aug. 30. Kitzmiller, who lives at 8859A Troy st., received abrasions of the arm and shoulder and scalp lacerations when thrown to the pavement at Cypress and Imperial at 1:30 p.m. Two teenagers from San Diego, driver Robert M. Burbrink, 18, and Gerry W. Skeel, 16, were occupants of the car which struck the rear wheel of Kitzmiller's bicycle.

The Highway Patrol said that Kitzmiller failed to make the boulevard stop when approaching Imperial avenue and that he rode into the path of the oncoming car.

The Highway Patrol reported that when the car swerved to avoid hitting Kitzmiller squarely, Skeel was thrown into the back seat and knocked unconscious. Both he and Kitzmiller were given emergency treatment at Grossmont hospital.

Kitzmiller, who will be a junior at Mt. Miguel high school this semester, is one of six children. He told this newspaper that seven stitches were taken in his scalp and that he had suffered a "separation of shoulder."

UNPLUGGED FIREPLUG—Unidentified Lemon Grove boys stand by a fireplug that was sheared off at ground level by the dented car in background and placed temporarily in the dampened street while the car was removed. The accident, involving two cars, occurred shortly after noon on Labor Day at Buena Vista and Broadway. A crowd quickly gathered to watch the high-pressure water make a cooling, towering geyser into the sweltering air. The above car, a 1946 Dodge, was driven by Andrew Yount, address not given, who was cited. He was traveling East on Broadway. The other car involved was a 1959 Oldsmobile owned by the Southern California Lease Plan, Inc., and driven by William F. Hall, address not given. No one was reported injured in the mishap. Look, Ma! No Goo

Those commercials on television show how bread tears easier, toasts better, and some of it even has (look) no holes.

We're working on a development, that should be worth millions if it's successful. It'll keep bread from wadding into a gooey mess when you put a loaf in the same sack with a couple of pounds of potatoes.

Who Vitiated Our Cuban Strategy?

News circles are buzzing about the September issue article in FORTUNE Magazine on the Cuban invasion. C. V. Murphy, the magazine's Washington correspondent wrote that the failure of the invasion resulted from some of President Kennedy's closest advisors' concern about the "immorality" of masked invasion.

First plans for this invasion came in early summer of 1960 with the Central Intelligence Agency taking the planning responsibility. These plans, related at a Cabinet meeting in April of this year by CIA's Richard M. Bissell were protested by Sen. William Fulbright, D. Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee who said the U. S. should not get involved at all.

As a result, the President cut back on the attack but did not cancel it entirely. He left just enough potency in the

Burnt-Out Tail Light Brings Marijuana Charge

TAIL LIGHT LEADS TO MARIJUANA ARREST

An out-of-commission tail light caused the arrest of three juveniles and an adult in Spring Valley over the weekend.

A sheriff's unit tailed the car to notify the driver of the light. The car sped to 50 miles an hour in a 35 mile zone but was stopped on Orville st.

The deputies alleged the driver to be under the influence of alcohol. Elvis Mason, 20, of 703 Thayer st., S.V., attempted to conceal a package of cigarettes which sheriff's men charge contained marijuana.

All three men were booked on three counts at county jail. The young woman who said she was married to one of the men was a juvenile and she was taken to Juvenile Hall. The men are 21, 20 and 18 years of age.

An attempt to kidnap her and commit mayhem was reported to the sheriff's department at 8:50 p.m. Sept. 2, by Mary Judith Giesey, 15, 3785 Riviera dr., L.G., a student at Helix High School and grand daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Gigliotti. She told the sheriff's detail responding to her phoned report, that she was walking along on Grove street from the Highway 94 westbound access when she saw the suspect, possibly 17 years old, 5 ft. 8 in. and weight about 140 lbs., sitting in a yellow 4-door sedan.

The suspect, she said, drove past the intersection and stopped the vehicle a few feet beyond her. Then he left the car and walked toward her. Another suspect in the car, she said, did not get out. Suspect No. 1 asked her if she had the time, and she looked to see if he had a watch and noticed that he had a maroon and yellow striped necktie in his hands.

Miss Giesey said that the suspect pursued and grabbed her around the neck, and then she punched and kicked the suspect in the stomach. He then attempted to drag her by the hair and she started screaming. The suspect then ran to the car and drove off. Miss Giesey ran south on Grove to a service station at Broadway and called the sheriff's office.

key made at the time and kept one. The loot ranged from watches, transistor radio, money in dollars and pennies, fruit cocktail, a can of red-whip, tequila and beer.

L.G. Mother Faces Charge Of Stealing Own Children

A Lemon Grove mother is being sought by the sheriff's department on a district attorney's charge of stealing her own three children. Also sought is Marvin Waldron, identified by sheriff's men as her companion.

The woman, Mrs. Jean Charlotte Johnson, 33, formerly of 8169 Mt. Vernon st., L.G. is charged on a three-count complaint. Waldron is named as co-defendant.

The complaint charges that Waldron and Mrs. Johnson took her son Barry Jeter, 11, from the Hillcrest Receiving Home where he had been temporarily placed, and that the woman's two other children, David Jeter, 14, and Kathryn Jeter, 13, were taken from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of 10707 Jamacha blvd., S.V.

Sheriff's officers said the children had been placed in the custody of the Millers, who are the parents of Mrs. Johnson, after Mrs. Johnson was divorced from her first husband, David Jeter, in 1955.

Deputies said a Los Angeles Superior Court judge had awarded the children to the Millers after ruling that Mrs. Johnson was an unfit mother.

Deputies said Mrs. Johnson and Waldron were believed to have fled to Illinois after the children were taken Aug. 8. Mrs. Miller signed the complaint against her daughter yesterday.

Municipal Court Judge Huntington P. Bledsoe set bail at $5,250 each after issuing bench warrants.

"Yes. Too much violence on television influences people, makes them think it's the way they're supposed to act. Violence shows bad things about the world when it would be as easy to show good things.

"I believe that children like violence, but it's bad for them. If they didn't see violence, they wouldn't think of it. Comedy is good because it shows a better side of life, and also TV should teach something—I don't mean actual subjects, but at least worthwhile behavior. Violence in westerns is more justified because usually it is a portrayal of historical fact."

SUMMER ENDS

School Bells To Beckon 4080 Grove Children

School bells on Monday morning, Sept. 11, will beckon 4,080 elementary students in the Lemon Grove district from fun to the classrooms of eight schools. These include six schools for kindergarten through sixth grade and two junior highs. A total certified staff of 152 will be on hand to greet area pupils.

According to Byron Netzley, district superintendent, thirteen teachers new to Lemon Grove will begin instruction. There is, however, no increase in staff, as these employees replace former ones. The staff is reduced by three since last year as a result of enrollment stability and budget economies.

All teachers reported earlier for the traditional pre-school orientation which began Tuesday and runs through Friday. District-wide meetings, grade-level meetings, and preparation of classrooms utilized most of these four working days. The program also included a county professional growth day at Balboa Park and presentation of new state readers by Dr. R. Van Allen of the County Department of Education.

Parents should note that cafeteria facilities are available for pupils at all schools at no increase in price despite a slight deficit in operational financing last year. Full support of the program in 1961-62 can put the school lunchrooms on a self-sustaining basis. The noon meal is a balanced, nutritious one. Prices are 25 cents for elementary pupils and 30 cents for junior high pupils. Each includes one-third of a quart of milk.

Mrs. Evelyn Lauritzen rejoins the staff as principal at Golden Avenue after a year of graduate study. Other administrative assignments remain unchanged. New teachers include Mrs. Linda Ashley, Lemon Grove Junior High English and PE; Mrs. Anna P. Broadwell, San Miguel first grade; Mrs. Constance Hale, San Altos second grade; and Ruth Kramer, Monterey Heights fifth grade.

Also Dan Long, San Altos sixth grade; Olin Martin, Vista La Mesa fourth grade; Peggy Sickler, Mount Vernon kindergarten; Arlo Thomas, Vista La Mesa fifth grade; Mrs. Mary Vest, Mount Vernon second grade; Mrs. Henry Etta Wilson, San Miguel kindergarten; Robert Backe, Palm special training class; Mrs. Barbara K. Edwards, Monterey Heights fifth grade; and Margaret Bond, Palm homemaker teacher.

Parents and pupils wishing to verify school or room assignments should consult class lists which are now posted outside offices at each of the buildings. New residents should register all school-age children now at their proper schools.

BALL SLINGERS WIN

'Pickup Team' Takes Victory At Bowlero

When the 880 Men's Scratch League at Lemon Grove Bowlero was formed this summer, one team dropped out the day the loop was slated to open its season.

That left seven teams and manager Ken Caldwell had to find five bowlers. During the afternoon he and his desk crew rounded up a team which called themselves the Ball Slingers.

The league ended last Friday with the Ball Slingers tied for first with Jaffe's.

Naturally, the Ball Slingers, a pickup team that had to be coaxed to bowl, won the play-off and the championship.

program to get an invasion mounted but not enough to give it the vitality of victory.

State Secretary Dean Rusk was in on the planning meetings yet State Department aides at the briefing conference in San Francisco in July told newsmen that they read about the invasion in the newspapers for their knowledge.

On April 17, with the invasion fleet already en route, Bissell was told by White House aide McGeorge Bundy, that the B26s scheduled to make strikes in the morning, would not do so, according to the magazine article. An effort was made to get Rusk to reconsider but he would not. An urgent request to have the invasion forces pulled back and to get a nearby U.S. carrier to provide cover. The answer again was no. Without air cover the invasion became hopeless.

By Monday, the President and his strategists became alarmed and ordered the B26s to attack. Fog cut the effectiveness of the small force that responded, the writer said. Castro's forces mopped up the invasion forces quickly.

Strangely missing are the names of those advisors who gave a death label to the program. Are they the same as those whose advice led to Pearl Harbor, to the Korean limitations and to the WWII European boundaries in Germany?

We have no reason to question the authenticity of Mr. Murphy's FORTUNE Magazine article but we wish it weren't true.

If poor intelligence, inept advice and lack of decision evidenced in the Cuban debacle becomes a pattern for us at the New Frontiers, we have only Heaven to help us as we stand unprotected before the Kremlin's demands.

Let's Give The Voters A Say!

Political observers here are bemoaning the practice of county government office-holders to pass their elective offices down to persons of their choice, instead of permitting the electorate to make a free and unadorned selection.

The case in point is the office of the sheriff which Bert Strand has held successfully against all comers longer than most of the population has lived in San Diego county. The sheriff's department has maintained integrity and respect during these many years, too, but now, it is being roundly rumored, that Strand expects to stand down on his birthday come Oct. 12.

We are in agreement that Strand has served long and well and should retire and enjoy his pension, but we said that when he stood for election four years ago.

When he steps down later this year it will permit the county board of supervisors to appoint Police Chief Elmer Jansen to fill Strand's shoes. Jansen then will run as an incumbent and one of the laws of politics is that an incumbent is a hard candidate to beat, all other things being equal.

Strand's health is not in question so retirement now is for political expediency. There has been a sorry history of political step-downs in this county and in each case the electorate has been the loser.

Roger N. Howe, county recorder, and Wilbur Easton, county tax collector, have retired during their terms, probably because of political pressures. Their jobs were filled by people not elected by the voter.

Let Strand hold his office until the election so that there may be an open and honest race.

To do less is an infringement of the Constitutional rights of voting Americans.

Starting Of Colt League Discussed By Local People

A group of interested people met at the Pals and Gals club house in Spring Valley, Wed., Aug. 30, for the purpose of getting plans underway for the formation of an area Colt League. The area now is comprised of Spring Valley, Lemon Grove, Encanto, and Skyline.

Red Keith, former pony league manager and coach, has been appointed temporary chairman of the group.

Howard Estes of Lemon Grove, who attended the meeting (he is a former Pony League player agent) said election of officers for the new group will be delayed until a meeting can be held with the La Mesa and El Cajon Colt Leagues. He said the reason for such a meeting is to establish new boundaries for the entire area. There are now Colt Leagues in the southwest portion of San Diego County, which includes La Mesa, El Cajon, Chula Vista and National City.

The meeting, which will be set up by the district representatives, should be held within the next weeks, Estes said. There are approximately 150 boys of the 15-16 years age bracket, who may be eligible to play Colt League baseball, Estes said. He urged that any boy interested in playing Colt League ball to contact either him at HO 6-0204, or Red Keith

SAN DIEGO'S LARGEST SIGN LIT HERE

The largest electrical sign ever made or erected in San Diego, was turned on this week when George A. Scott, head of the Walker Scott department stores turned on the huge sign located atop the Walker Scott store in College Grove.

The sign is 56 feet long and 46 feet high. It contains 8 tons of steel, six tons for the structure and two tons for the sign itself.

The letters are 11 feet high. It took a half mile of neon tubing to spell out the letters on the double-faced sign.

It will use as much power in one hour as the average household would use in a month. Cost was given as approximately $35,000.

To The Editor...

Dear Editor:
Please print the following:
Just an imitation lemon
Lying there beneath the sun
Symbol of a copious culture
Now ignored by everyone.

There are those who still remember
Orchards spreading everywhere
Filling every field and byway
With a fruit that none compare.

July orange, sweet and tender
Hanging from the numerous trees
Yellow lemons, tart with acid
Dangling in the ocean breeze.

There were grapefruit, plums and peaches
Berries growing on the hill
Everything in great profusion
Luscious grapes were grown at will.

Once the orchards quite prolific
Now neglected, nearly rare;
Citrus factory, once efficient
Naught but ashes lying there.

Drastic change has swept the homeland
Various interest now abound
Man and women, rich in knowledge
Have no wish to till the ground.

Will these new industries form
Here and now within the land
Teach us fortitude and caution
That our ways of life demand?

Will they give us independence
Freedom, faith and peace of mind
As the culture, now abandoned
Had that gentle folks would find?

Let us hope the new environment
Prevalent now on every hand
Will bring health and wealth abundant
To a striving, struggling hand.

Lonely symbol, how depressing
Rejected looking weather-worn
Like the custom, once so prevalent
Of its natural beauty shorn.

This being the hot-weather season, you'll probably be especially interested in hearing about nutritious meals that can be prepared quickly and with ease.

I'll be presenting my "Ready-In-A-Jiffy Meals" program on Tuesday, September 12, at 10 a.m., and again on Tuesday, September 26, at 1:30 p.m. This cooking demonstration will be held in the air-conditioned auditorium of San Diego Gas & Electric Company's Eastern District Office, 104 North Johnson Street, El Cajon.

Contrary to a rather widespread impression, quickly prepared meals need not necessarily be expensive, as in the case of steaks. The real secret of "ready-in-a-jiffy" meals is in making plans well ahead of time, in fact doing some food preparation in advance. Then, too, there's the matter of choosing foods that call for just a brief cooking period.

To illustrate, I'll prepare main-course dishes, such as chicken con carne, barbecued chicken with rice and rice, Pacific pork and cabbage, and ham and asparagus shortcake. I'll also discuss some complete-meal menus, which include gateau royale, grapes with sour cream, tasty muffins and other quick breads.

Be sure to mark your calendar as a reminder to attend one of the scheduled meetings. There'll be the usual distribution of recipes and awarding of a valuable appliance door prize.

Mrs. Solleder to be at Triennial Convention

Mrs. S. K. Solleder, assistant director of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Convocation of San Diego, will leave Sept. 14 for Detroit to attend the Triennial meeting of the women of the church. They will meet in convention Sept. 17-29. She is the wife of the assistant superintendent of the Lemon Grove elementary school district.

Mrs. Solleder will be the only delegate from this area. She will be joined by five other delegates from the Los Angeles Diocese.

She has been active in church work for the past 14 years. She has served as a member of the Altar Guild, as church school secretary; has been a past president of the Foothill Council of Church Women; past president of the Unified group, Women of St. Andrews, La Mesa; a delegate to the Eighth Province Synod in 1960; for many years a member of St. Andrews Episcopal Church, La Mesa, although at present she is a communicant at St. Phillips the Apostle, in Lemon Grove.

Mrs. Solleder has been nominated to be the director of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Convocation of San Diego.

During the convention, she will present the check for the United Thank Offering collection, for the past three years. This free-will offering, over and above all group commitments, totals $27,207. The total amount given by all the women at last Triennial in Miami Beach in 1958 was $3,869,985. This money, used in various mission projects around the world, has been used for jeeps, dogsleds, airplanes; for salaries, medicines and of course buildings, repairs or additions.

Pastor To Compare Religions After World Trip

The pastor's sermon text Sunday at the L.G. Methodist Church is "Christianity Among a Worldful of Religions" and is based on Romans 3:29-30.

Dr. Jordan Detzer, who has just returned from a 40-day tour around the world intends to use his sermon to compare religious views. He will compare Christianity with his experiences with Buddhist priests in Bangkok, Shinto priests in Tokyo, the Moslems in Palestine and the Orthodox priests of Cyprus and Athens.

Rev. Detzer will show some of the color slides he took in the Holy Land Sept. 17 at the churches men's club.

Ward McMaken, a second semester sophomore, living at 4125 Merritt dr., La Mesa, and who has been attending Cal Western University, will join the staff of the Foothills Methodist Church as director of youth activities, it was learned this week.

Vista La Mesa Sermon Based On College Life

Sunday services at the Vista La Mesa Christian Church will have a "go-to-college" theme. The sermon will be "The Secret of Profound Simplicity" and based upon the passage of Paul's sermon in Athens, it will "seek the key to the profoundly simple and the simply profound," according to the VLM pastor.

Also, the sermon will try to reveal what is the greatest learning a person may possess. Services will be at 9:45 and 11 a.m.

College students are to be seated in honor pews—on the front and left, and their names will be listed in the morning bulletin.

Cards of introduction to college will be given to the students at the close of worship.

Pupils eligible for the Senior class are those who have had one year of confirmation instruction in any Lutheran church.

Effective Prayer Stressed In Sermon Titled 'Substance'

Effective prayer will be the theme emphasized Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" at all Christian Science churches.

Scriptural citations include the account in Luke's Gospel of the two men who "went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican." The humility of the publican was commended by Jesus in these words, "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted" (18: 10, 14).

Miss Regina Stadler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Stadler of 8166 Baldwin road, Lemon Grove, became the bride of Raymond C. Enochs Jr., on Sept. 2 at St. John of the Cross Catholic Church, Lemon Grove.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Enochs Sr., of 6270 Tarragona dr., San Diego.

The bride's gown, fashioned of white satin and styled with a princess waistline and chapel train, was accented with Venetian lace at the edge of the boat neckline and third-quarter length sleeves.

A headpiece of matching lace held her fingertip veil of illusion net in place. She carried a crescent bouquet of white gardenias and roses.

SISTER MAID OF HONOR
The bride's sister, Miss Brenda Stadler, was maid of honor. She wore a mint green satin dress, styled with a princess waistline and short sleeves. Her circular headpiece of green satin was accented with a nose-length veil. She carried a crescent bouquet of pink chrysanthemums with two white gardenias.

The reception was held at the St. John of the Cross Catholic Church hall. Following their honeymoon to Big Bear Lake, the couple will reside at 4280 Schoolridge Lane, La Mesa. The bride will continue her studies in journalism at San Diego State and the bridegroom will study advertising at Grossmont College.

The bride was a 1958 graduate of Mt. Miguel high school and Mr. Enochs was graduated from Helix high school in 1958.

Hospital Group To Make Awards Friday At Luncheon

Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary will hold its general meeting and annual awards luncheon Friday at Singing Hills Country Club. Meeting and presentation of awards will be at 10:30 a.m. with luncheon to follow at noon.

Mrs. Don A. Smith, president, will preside at the business meeting, and Mrs. James V. Dickson, awards chairman, will announce the awards. The awards are cards recognizing the hours of service given to the hospital through the auxiliary in the past auxiliary year.

Mrs. Dickson reports that a total of 36,427 hours were given by senior members during the year and a total of 1,948 by junior members. Many of these women have been serving in the hospital ever since its doors were opened in 1955. Mrs. Dickson also states that some special mention will be made in her presentation of a few of the outstanding records of the past year—from the standpoint of number of hours served.

Mrs. Ernest Denlinger, hospitality chairman, is in charge of plans for the luncheon and decoration of the tables. She will be assisted by Mrs. Frank Rietz, Mrs. William Harris, and Mrs. Charles Alesch.

Apiarists Rid Grove Neighborhood of Bee Menace

Lemon Grove (Calif.) REVIEW, Sept. 7, 1961 Page 5

SURROUNDED — Bee man Andy Kerr, seated in the Cypress tree where a big hive of bees formed over past months, is shown after completing the worst part of the job of removing the menace from the Skyline drive neighborhood. But the bees weren't entering their new home, the box in the lower left of picture, like they should and were getting wild, and Kerr has just ordered his assistant to "smoke" them. This settles the bees down because they can't breathe. Kerr got up in the tree about 12:30 p.m. on Friday a week ago and began doing a job at which he's expert, removing bee swarms from where they're not wanted. In less than two hours, he was stung between 50-60 times. "It's all in a day's work," he commented. Kerr is immune to a "reasonable number" of bee stings, but even he can't endure a frenzied onslaught of an entire hive if the bees go berserk. Therefore, the smoke. Staff photo.

SAVING THE QUEEN — When Kerr put the middle of the hive into a special box for transporting the bees, he thought the queen bee was in too. But when the bees didn't enter their new home and had to be smoked, Kerr knew that the queen bee was elsewhere. In the above picture he is at the base of the tree in the midst of the swarm hunting for the queen, which is easily distinguishable because she is bigger. While Kerr is working thus bees are crawling on his face and arms and he is constantly being stung. He said that if too many stings occur the smell of venom fills the air, causing a chain-reaction of stinging. Kerr was able to keep the bees calm enough to prevent anyone in the neighborhood from being stung. The bees could go so wild they'd attack any person or animal in sight. The Hams and some of the neighbors watched from the safety of the screened-in porch behind and to the right of the hive tree. Staff photo.

A Lemon Grove neighborhood spent its usual quiet, peaceful summer this year, unaware that at any moment some 80,000 bees could have swarmed to the attack had but one baseball gone astray. Lately the neighborhood found out and shuddered uncomfortably, feeling grateful nevertheless that the wild hive in a tall Cypress tree in front of the home of Lt. Cdr. Jesse W. Ham and his wife at 2014 Skyline drive, had not been disturbed.

The Hams had noticed an increasingly loud droning sound and too many bees in their yard. But it wasn't until Mr. Ham, real estate operator with the local Art Leith real estate firm, actually spotted the home of an estimated 80,000 bees on June 13 did they know what they had on their hands.

He was mowing his front lawn, repeatedly passing within a few feet of the tall tree. His shoulders frequently disturbed the branches, and the bees buzzed wildly around him. He luckily escaped being stung. SEES BEES

On one of the trips back and forth with the lawnmower, Mr. Ham stopped and peered up at the tree. He'd accidentally caught a glimpse of something big and busy. He didn't study the big object very long before his eyes could pick out the mass of flying and crawling bees on and around the hive.

Like many people who find themselves in a unique situation, the Hams didn't know where to turn. Because no one had been stung, they didn't feel a great urgency, but on the following Thursday Mrs. Ham called the fire department.

She found the fire department prepared even for this situation. They gave her the names of several "apiarists," or "bee men."

STUNG ON NOSE — Meanwhile, the neighborhood learned about the hive. Many people dropped by to see it. A dog accompanying his master, a junior high school boy, got stung on the nose.

Thursday night apiarist Andrew W. Kerr, 21, who lives with his parents at 2046 Barry st. here, and his assistant, Bert Thornton, 19, of 2005 Fairhaven st., arrived at Ham's house on Skyline drive and had a look. The next day they got rid of the bees and the neighborhood breathed easier. The adjoining pictures show how apiarists work.

Kerr, a native of England has been working with bees since the age of seven when his father bought him a beehive. He's lived in the Lemon Grove area for 4½ years and has a reputation here for his fearless bee technique.

NO PROTECTION — Kerr wades right into a swarm, sometimes wearing only Bermuda shorts. Says he: "I've worked up an immunity to the stings. Other than leaving small red marks on my skin, they do nothing to me."

He and Thornton own the Lemon Grove Honey Company, a firm controlling 700 hives in Southern California. They also run the California Honey Co., a honey import-export business.

Kerr said that what got him interested in bees was getting stung as a child. After that, he read bee books and his father got him a beehive. Now, nearly 15 years later, he has "millions of bee workers."

Thornton joined up with Kerr a couple of years back. The second oldest of 11 children, he plans to gradually build up his immunity to bee venom by allowing himself to get stung more and more. His father, a Rotarian, operates Thornton's Mattress and Upholstery firm in Lemon Grove.

Said Kerr: In removing the bees from the Ham residence, we removed a dangerous situation. We do this as a public service and I would like to invite anyone with a bee problem to give us a call.

"I don't mind getting stung," Kerr added. "I find it stimulating. In fact, I don't mind saying I love bees. I just think of our millions of bee workers industriously producing saleable honey for us, and I go on getting stung."

UNDER CONTROL — With the queen bee in the transportable hive, the worker bees also enter the container. Kerr scoops them inside to hurry progress while Thornton holds the hive. Both men show the strain of their ordeal. Thornton, although he wore gloves and head-netting, was stung about a dozen times. The bees were put in this car and taken to Kerr's home. He said that they will be used to form a new hive for producing honey but that that will take several years. Kerr's folks have by now grown accustomed to his work but he said his mother still runs from a bee. Staff photo.

News of Spring Valley Estates,
Mt. Miguel Terrace and La Presa
by Elaine Horowitz HO 3-5393

Whether you feel that your vacation is over, or about to begin, the fact is that summer's almost over and school is about to begin. Many backs still ache from bending over a "hot" sewing machine, and most of us are still recuperating from the mad case of "empty pockets," all a result of getting the children ready for school.

We're all going to be faced with some shocking facts when school starts, especially those of you who have children starting kindergarten this year. There will be 40 children in each kindergarten, and since here are only enough funds for two kindergarten teachers, the children will have to go to Rancho. If that's not bad enough, because of this same shortage of funds, there are no buses available, so parents will have to transport their youngsters back and forth. If those Chula Vista residents think they have something to complain about, how would you like to live right across from the school, already have one or more children attending the school, and have to find transportation back and forth to another school for your little one.

HOW TO PREVENT FIRES AT HOME

(This newspaper is printing this series on Civil Defense in the interest of public preparedness. The editors would be interested in hearing about any civil defense measures being taken by people in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area. It is suggested that the series be clipped for future references.)

The effects of an atomic or hydrogen bomb are spread by three forms of energy—heat, blast, and radiation.

The heat flash is over in a matter of seconds, but it lasts long enough to set fire to exposed paper, cloth, rubbish, and dry wood over a large area.

Immediately following the heat flash comes a tremendous blast wave.

A nuclear explosion could start dozens of small fires in and near your home. You can minimize that risk by practicing fireproof housekeeping.

PROCEDURE
1. Appoint a family fire marshal to lead all responsible members of the family in a systematic search for home fire hazards—from attic to basement. Check closets, attic, and cellar for discarded articles that would burn easily.

2. Begin by clearing your attic. Make sure you can get into the attic area quickly by trapdoor, stairs, or ladder to fight a fire. Appoint one member of your family, plus a helper, to this top-floor cleanup job.

3. Clean out your closets and storage lockers. There may be many flammable odds and ends there that really have no further use. Make one member of your family and a helper responsible for getting rid of them.

CHECK GARAGE
4. Check your cellar and garage for flammable rubbish—half empty cans of paint, varnish, and turpentine; oily rags; paint-soaked brushes; old newspapers and magazines; and empty cartons, boxes, and baskets. Throw away or burn the stuff you will never use again. Keep such fluids as gasoline, benzine, and naphtha in tightly closed metal containers outside the house.

5. Don't stop when you've cleared out the inside of your house. Clear out your yard, and the alley and vacant lots near the house. Collect rubbish and dispose of it. Don't leave it around to help set fire to your property.

6. You don't need expensive or special fire-fighting equipment. You should have on hand a serviceable garden hose, a hand water pump, a shovel, a ladder in good condition, and filled buckets of water and sand—the equivalent of one for each two rooms.

Your hose should have an adapter that will make the coupling fit the kitchen and bathroom faucets. If the water supply fails, a hand water pump extinguisher can be used with almost any container that will hold stored water.

If you have a chemical fire extinguisher, keep it filled and know how to use it. Read the directions now, not after a fire has started.

WHAT MAKES A FIRE?
If you know what makes a fire, you can learn more easily how to prevent one from starting—and how to put one out. Three things are needed for a fire: (1) fuel to burn, (2) heat to make it burn, and (3) air to keep it burning.

A kitchen match is a good example. When you strike the head it flares hotly for a moment, setting fire to the matchstick, which is the fuel. The oxygen in the air then keeps the match burning.

If you drop the lighted match into a small bottle and put your hand over the opening, the flame soon will smother for lack of air.

Quicker still, dip your lighted match into a glass of water. It will go out at once. The water has cut off the air and cooled the fuel.

Most small fires can be put out by smothering or by cooling. As a rule, burning liquids such as gasoline or grease are smothered. There is little difference between throwing a handful of soda into a blazing skillet and using chemical foam to blanket an oil tank fire. Burning solids like wood, or paper are best extinguished with water.

FIRE NEEDS FUEL, AIR, AND HEAT TO BURN

1. TAKE AWAY FUEL—Remove burning material before the fire spreads, if possible.

2. TAKE AWAY AIR—A wet rug will smother the fire.

3. TAKE AWAY HEAT—You can't have too much water on hand. It will put out most any type of fire.

Take away any ONE of the three things a fire needs, and it will not burn.

PRACTICE 1. Allow time for thoroughly checking the house, grounds, water supply, and from fire-fighting equipment. Then the family fire marshal should ask all other members of the family for their reports.

2. Talk over what still needs to be done and set a time limit for finishing your preparations.

3. Call another family meeting when the time is up and check the fire-protection arrangements: If anyone in the family is having trouble completing his job, give him additional helpers and a new deadline.

4. After home fire-protection arrangements are completed to everyone's satisfaction, check over your preparations again from time to time. Weekly or monthly inspections will make your home safer.

If possible, have one member of your family take training in fire fighting. You may want to ask your local fire inspector to inspect your home for fire safety and advise you if other precautions are necessary.

All members of your family should read OGD booklets, PB-4, Fire Fighting for Householders, revised May 1958, reprinted June 1959.

Punt, Pass and Kick Contest For Youngsters

Football and football uniforms will be prizes in the Ford Punt, Pass and Kick contest.

Jim Spears, local dealer, said that the contest now being started nationwide, will be played here strictly on a local basis.

Youngsters will participate in three categories, as the name of the competition indicates. Participants will punt, pass and place kick down a line with one point going for each foot of distance. The distance in feet the ball lands from the line will be subtracted. That will be the score. Youngsters will compete against youngsters of the same age.

To participate, youngsters, accompanied by a parent, must go to the auto dealer and obtain a registration card. A time and place for the competition will be given as soon as sufficient participants have registered.

Local play-offs will be held the second week in October. All competition is being held under the County and S.D. City recreation department. No special equipment is needed in the contest. Street shoes or sneakers only may be used in the kicking contest, Spears said.

LA MESA SUMMER CLASSES END SEPT. 9

The La Mesa Recreation Park Department announces that summer classes close September 9, with the Youth Center closing on that day for renovation. The Youth Center will reopen on Sept. 25 and the winter program will start on Oct. 2. Classes will resume at that time. The swimming pool will stay open as long as weather permits.

MORE SHAKESPEARE SCHEDULED IN PARK
Capacity audiences at the National Shakespeare Festival in San Diego have prompted the scheduling of an additional week through September 17. "Twelfth Night," "Merchant of Venice" and "King Richard III" are performed in repertory at the Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park.

MODERN LOOK with the keynote on style is symbolized by this front view of the new Berner-Judd fashion center in the Spring Valley Shopping Center. Utilizing a full 40 foot frontage area with a unique "center island" window display treatment, the entire store will cover nearly 5,000 square feet of merchandising space. Interior decor has been exquisitely planned with a high-fashion motif of golds and whites set-off by a striking checker board pattern of black and white floor tile. Comfortable lighting treatments and a special temperature controlled air-conditioning add to the conveniences designed for the Berner-Judd customer.

Los Angeles Anglers Win At Derby

Los Angeles anglers took four of the top five prize-winning fish, lately in the 20th week of the 15th annual San Diego Yellowtail Derby. The top five fish, all longfins, weighed a combined 190 lbs. 10 oz., according to Andy Grayner, chairman of the Derby, sponsored by the San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The top man was Albert R. St. Onge of 7100 W. 94th St., Los Angeles, who pulled a 39-lb. 5-oz. albacore over the rail of the Captain Midnight. For first prize, St. Onge won a portable television set, and a $50 merchandise certificate in the special Ted Williams contest, sponsored by Sears of San Diego.

Each of the other winners this week received merchandise certificates in this contest and qualified to compete in a special Sears-San Diego fishoff at the end of the month. Twenty anglers, winners in the month-long competition, will vie for $300, $200, and $100 merchandise awards in the fishoff.

Bad Public Relations Seen

Dr. Miller's Removal May Be Asked By Jury

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A recommendation for removal of Dr. Willis H. Miller as the county planning director is to be made Thursday by the County Grand Jury, according to persistent reports at Civic Center early this week.

Miller has refused to comment. The Grand Jury is also expected to recommend that the three county employees on the County Planning Commission be deprived of their present right to vote.

The county officials on the commission are David K. Speer, road commissioner and county surveyor; Jean L. Vincenz, public works director; and Henry A. Dietz, county counsel. Dietz is represented by Deputy County Counsel Robert Berrey, who has been the commission's legal advisor for a number of years, and Speer and Vincenz are often represented by members of their staffs.

Miller has been under fire for a number of years and many requests have been made for his removal.

The Grand Jury report is believed to be going to state in its report that the county's public relations, so far as planning and zoning, would be improved by the removal of Miller.

It is also reported that among the protests against Miller received by the Grand Jury were some from members of his staff.

The Grand Jury has had all appointed planning commission members before it and Berrey, Vincenz and Miller. In addition, testimony has been taken from groups throughout the county who have been opposed to county zoning and planning policies.

Among those heard were Santee property owners, who objected to the permanent zone plan for their community, and North County persons representing the Citizens Assn. for Better Government, an organization formed to oppose the controversial "split lot" ordinance.

The effect of the Grand Jury recommendation is uncertain as the County Board of Supervisors cannot remove Miller, and county planning commissioners so far support him.

Campo rd. Work Bids Awarded

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Contracts for almost $300,000 of work on Campo road, in the Casa de Oro area of Spring Valley were awarded Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors.

Griffith Co. won the job of grading and paving and put drainage structures, with a bid of $261,824. Walter H. Barber was given the contract for construction of a storm drain at Campo road and Kenora drive on a bid of $9,162.

TWO MEN BOOKED ON CHARGE OF JUVENILE DELINQUENCY HERE

An order of detention was issued Aug. 25 from the sheriff's office for Antonio Maurice La Conte, 24, of 7505 Mt. Vernon st., L.G., William Lucas Crowley, also 24, of the same address, for contributing to juvenile delinquency. Involved is a juvenile Spring Valley girl.

Lloyd R. Payne, of 3255 S. Barcelona, S.V., said that the girl had knocked at his door at 1:15 a.m. Aug. 23 and stated that she had been beaten up by a fellow she was out with and that she had jumped from his car and hidden in Payne's garage until he left the area.

She asked Payne to take her to the home of friends at the Mt. Vernon address in L.G. He told sheriff's men that he became suspicious after he had left her there and reported it to a unit standing at Olive and Broadway in L.G.

The unit found two men at the house in a state of semi-undress but denied knowledge of the girl and demanded a search warrant before allowing the officers to check the premises. The deputies asserted that a warrant is not needed because a complaint had been filed, and found the girl hidden in a bedroom.

The men were booked at county jail on charges of contributing to juvenile delinquency. The girl was taken to juvenile hall as a runaway.

The Carman team entered in ten events, taking team points in all of them. The girls 10 and under medley and freestyle relays and the 11 and 12 boys in the same events took top honors. Placing second in the 200 meter medley relay and the 200 meter freestyle relay were Peggy Lubic, Linda Holland, Maureen O'Brien and Sharon Erickson for the girls.

The boys' team of David Dawson, Danny Treinen, John Harter and Ronald Robertson took second places in both their events.

After the swim meet, the swim team and their families were honored by a beach party held at the Silver Strand State Park.

The Carman Ranch swim team culminated the most successful month of their history by garnering honors in top swimmeets in the San Diego area.

In the AAU junior Olympics held at Coronado David Dawson placed 2nd in boys (11-12) 50-meter freestyle and breaststroke, Brenda Holmberg, 3rd in girls (13-14) 100-meter breaststroke, Brian Yale, 3rd boys (13-14) 100-meter freestyle. In the boys (11 and 12) 200-meter freestyle relay.

David Dawson, Dan Treinen, Ronald Robertson, and Mike Wilhite, took second place. Other finalists were Peggy Lubic, John Harter, Philip Hatter, and Linda Holland.

In the Pacific Southwest Area AAU age group championships, the synchronized swim team captured four trophies. In the 10 and under solo routine, Linda Holland placed third, and Paulette Horner and Sharon Smith placed first and second respectively. Beth Ann Kraft and Paulette Horner placed third in 13 and 14 duet routines.

CLOSED CHEST MASSAGE

Fireman Credited With Saving Life Of Shock Victim

Engineer Noah Tubbs of the Lemon Grove fire department is credited with having the life on the evening of Aug. 29 of a local man who nearly electrocuted himself while working on his garbage disposal unit.

Andrew Lizama, 46, of 2491 Massachusetts received closed chest heart massage treatment from Tubbs after his daughter had pulled him from electric wires before firemen arrived. He also was administered oxygen.

Firemen reported that Lizama failed to shut off the electricity when he began repairing the disposal. Moisture by the disposal added to the severity of shock. Lizama was treated at Grossmont hospital.

His daughter and wife, Agnes, were in the house with him. The fire department answered the call at 8:14 p.m.

COOK TREATED
In another first aid call on Sept. 3 at 2:09 p.m. the cook at the Sunkist Inn in Lemon Grove, Irene Ardery, was given resuscitator and oxygen treatment but was not hospitalized.

A California Disaster Office fire engine stationed in Lemon Grove and on loan from the state, is engaged with 24 other pumps from the county in fighting the Black Mountain fire near Mesa Grande.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

In your Inquiring Reporter Column published in the issue of August 10, you had an interview from a Joseph G. Vitas a U.S. Treasury Department employee, with residence at 826 Bigford st., Spring Valley, the subject being "Spring Valley, Incorporated."

In that statement, Mr. Vitas makes charges I think that are a slur against the Chairman of the Spring Valley Incorporation Committee, Dr. Hayle Trent, and the people of Spring Valley, which I, as a member of that committee and also a member of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, feel should not be allowed to go unchallenged and proper rebuke made to Mr. Vitas, I quote:

"My wife and I don't like the idea of an outsider—Dr. Hayle Trent—pushing for incorporation when he doesn't even live here. I think Spring Valley People are too apathetic to bring about incorporation or any other community project."

Dr. Trent has lived in Spring Valley and opened his office here in June of 1960. He has taken an active part in community affairs, in the Chamber of Commerce, in the Business and Professional Club and in the S.V. Lions Club ever since he has been here. He has done more active work to try and help Spring Valley in that short time than many people who have been here for a number of years. Dr. Trent is not new to California, having matriculated in San Diego College and practiced his profession in San Diego for several years before coming to Spring Valley. He chose Spring Valley because he wanted a friendly and healthful community in which to bring up his three children.

Mr. Vitas implies a resentment against anyone doing anything in Spring Valley, who is not from Spring Valley. Let Mr. Vitas come out and help push our wagon of progress if he thinks we are not doing enough. Then, perhaps with his help we will be able to bring about the successful fruition of those projects which are needed to make Spring Valley the leading community in this area.

Dear Editor:

Your fine cooperation in printing our news during the past school year, 1960-61, is very much appreciated by all members of our Palm Junior High Parent Teacher Association. This has resulted in the highest award possible—a gold ribbon from Ninth District PTA—to our unit the very first year of existence.

Mrs. Frank Armstrong
President, Palm Junior
High Parent Teacher
Association

Dear Editor:

Is it good for money to remain idle?

The Lemon Grove Taxpayers' Association has had a bank balance of $25.72 for the past year. That money is doing no one any good. It was received by donations from various people living in the Lemon Grove area for the purpose of improving the well being of the people of this area and for the purpose of seeing that we received value for our tax dollar.

As the response to the last few called meetings of the Association failed to bring enough members to form a quorum the meetings were discontinued.

At the present time only two officers remain: the secretary, Mrs. Chester Tamila and myself, the treasurer.

As I am moving from Lemon Grove to Oregon, I deem it wise to put the money to work by donating it to the San Diego County Taxpayers Association so that it may be used for the purpose it was originally intended.

What do you think?

Auditions Open For Euterpe Chorus

The Women's Committee of the Grossmont Community Concert Association wishes to announce that auditions are to be held for the Euterpe Chorus in September. This three-part chorus of the Women's Committee was organized last year and performed at some of the local community concerts.

The Chorus is conducted by Mrs. Gilbert Harelson, and Mrs. Alvin D. Reidler is the accompanist. Anyone in the area interested in singing is invited to contact Mrs. Harelson, HO 9-3743.

The rehearsals are held Fridays at 10 a.m. at the Harelson home, 10055 Pandora Dr., La Mesa. First rehearsal will be Oct. 6. The Chorus expects to do a limited number of appearances through the coming year.

Around Our Valley:

News and Views from Spring Valley

By Tommy Thomas

Tumbling Tumbleweeds Might Be Eliminated

There seems to be a lot of action going on in several areas of Spring Valley, regarding the elimination of our "ever-present" tumbleweeds (Russian histle). I see many people out getting rid of these pests while they are still in the green stage, before they dry up and spread more seeds. This is the thing to do.

I was told by the Department of Agriculture that these tumbleweeds are not only pestering Spring Valleyites but other San Diego County people. I'll go one farther—they are all over California. On my recent trip I saw the "pests" as far north as Sacramento. There should be an all-out campaign to rid our state of them once and for all.

YOUTH CENTER SOUGHT

Action is still under way to try to get this area a boys club or youth center. If we all pull together, I see no reason why this cannot be accomplished. We surely need something of this sort if we are to help curb our juvenile problem. A lot of credit goes to Mrs. Daphne Khars, out on Don Pico Rd., for her efforts in trying to locate a parcel of ground that is suitable for a club. If only someone would come forward and donate a few acres (10 or more), the problem would have made a big step forward.

CONGRATS TO GRAHAMS

A "belated congrat" to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham II, of 3983 Bancroft Dr., S.V. on the June arrival of their first child, a son named Robert Graham II, weighing in at 6 lbs., 12 ozs. This is also the first grandchild for the Robert Grahams of 2228 Central. Everyone knows Bob and Rosalie.

Incidentally Bob and Rosalie just got back from a week's vacation up north. They went to Glendora to attend a wedding of their niece, Judy Harris (a frequent S.V. visitor) who married Rennie Resh of Glendora. The Grahams later went to Bob's brother's ranch in Lancaster, for a good, needed rest.

RALSTONS RETURN FROM NORTHERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. (Fred and Frieda) Ralston, over at 8770 Lamar St., just got back from a trip north. They took Mrs. Ralston's mother, Mrs. Bertha Gilbert back home to Placerville. She had been down here for the recent wedding of her granddaughter, Gail (now Mrs. Robert Niebrugge). The Ralstons stopped at Lake Tahoe and did a bit of fishing at Rush Creek, near June Lake. Incidentally, while they were north, who should they run in to but the newlyweds. . . small world.

MRS. VAN WRITES

It was nice to receive a letter recently from Mrs. J. E. Van Landingham of Goodwood, Mr. Mrs. Van and her husband moved to that mid-western city several months ago from Spring Valley. Mr. Van was in the plumbing business here at the corner of Troy and Sweet water.

Mrs. Van said she and hubby are enjoying farm life in old Mo., but she admitted she gets a bit lonesome at times for her friends and relatives of Spring Valley.

SAM TAKES JIM

"You're in the Army now." Yes, Jim Anderson of 2877 Heilix St., S.V., recently reported to Los Angeles for his induction into Uncle Sam's Army for a 2-year hitch. He will take his basic at Ft. Ord. Jim's wife Kay, said when she knows where he will be stationed that she wants to go and live near the base. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Anderson of Rosedale drive.

MORE PARADE HELPERS NEEDED

Do you still have the Spring Valley Parade on your mind? I hope so, for plans are shaping up real well, according to Bill Zabel, general parade chairman. So far there is no grand marshal, but a committee is working on the situation. And speaking of committees, more Spring Valley people are needed to work on various committees. Won't you help? It's YOUR PARADE. Offer your help in any way. The parade's only a couple of months away. Nov. 4. Call Bill Zabel at HC 9-9946. He sure needs help.

The meeting will be held in the school cafeteria, 7550 Canton Dr., Lemon Grove at 7:30 p.m. this week on Thursday.

Les Freeman Resigns L.M. City Clerk Post

Lester L. Freeman, clerk of the City of La Mesa and popular civic leader in the East County area, resigned lately from his La Mesa city position where he had served for nearly 30 years.

His resignation came as no surprise to those who knew him well. He had openly made his concern known for the growing tendency of government appointees to wrest control from those elected to office.

His resignation, accepted by the La Mesa city council on Aug. 23 will be effective September 1. The job paid $650 a month. He still holds the job of deputy city treasurer at $216 a month but he said this week that his resignation would be given as soon as a replacement is named.

Freeman also served as a trustee on the Grossmont high school district board for 15 years until two years ago when his term expired. He did not run for reelection.

RE-ELECTED TO OFFICE

Freeman had reached retirement age earlier but elected to stay on past the first of the year. He was re-elected to office in April 1960 and his term expires in 1964. He decided to stay on until after a then upcoming Grand Jury probe into problems in the La Mesa city government. No charges came as a result of the Jury's investigation.

The La Mesa council has the choice of appointing a city clerk within 30 days to fill Freeman's unexpired term or it may call a special election.

The City will elect a mayor for the first time when it holds an election next April. Freeman said it was too early for him to consider such a race.

"My wife and I intend to catch up on the seven or eight vacations we have missed during the past 30 years. Then I'll look around to see where I may put my knowledge and experience to use," he said.

Cross and has held various offices in the American Legion. He is an active Rotarian and former member of the LM Rotary board of directors.

Councilman James Lukens was appointed by the city council to arrange an appreciation program for Freeman.

Parker, Kraft Named To Palm PTA Posts

Mrs. T. A. Parker has been named Mt. Miguel representative and Mrs. Ralph Kraft, civil defense chairman of the Palm Junior High School PTA, has been announced by Mrs. Frank Armstrong, president.

Mrs. Armstrong will preside at the first executive board meeting on Sept. 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the home economics room at Palm Junior High. Mrs. C. D. Brouillette will be hostess for the evening.

Area Adult Schools Plan Wide Variety Of Classes

Nurse Retraining Courses, Daytime Classes, Offered

September 11 has been set as the starting date for adult school in the Grossmont Union High School District. Grossmont adult school will be under the direction of John W. Davis; Helix adult school, under Harry C. Riley; El Cajon adult school, under V. Peterson, principal.

A wide variety of interesting and informative subjects are slated for the schools. The following locations in this area will be holding classes:

El Cajon high school; Grossmont high school; Helix high school; El Capitan high school; Granite Hills high school; Mt. Miguel high school; Alpine Women's Club Building; El Cajon Center (Church of God); Grossmont hospital quonset hut; Lakeside Kiwanis Club hall; La Mesa Adult Center (4774 Spring St.); Collier Park, La Mesa; La Mesa Girls' Cottage (at rear of youth center); Leewood Trailer Park, Lemon Grove, and Lemon Grove Youth Center.

ADULT SCHOOL DATA

Here is information regarding adult school:

ADMISSION: Classes will be open to high school graduates and other adults who are 18 years of age and older, and who believe that they can profit by further study. A student will enroll in the classroom. Students may enter a class at any time as instruction is on an individual basis.

TUITION: Tuition fee will be $1 per subject per semester. There is an $8 fee for a course of behind-the-wheel driving. The tuition fee is not returnable after the third session.

NEW CLASSES: New classes will be organized by sufficient demand and if they are educational in character. Contact Grossmont Adult Office, HO 5-3138, Ext. 275.

HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA: Earn High School credit and diploma. You may be nearer to the diploma than you think, it is pointed out.

COUNSELING: Available at Grossmont, Helix, El Cajon and Mt. Miguel High Schools.

ATTENDANCE: Good attendance is the students' responsibility and is expected thus to assure the greatest to individuals and guarantee the class continuance.

MANY SUBJECTS

There are far too many subjects to list, but a brochure may be picked up at local post offices, in the libraries or at Grossmont High School. Many of the classes will be held in the daytime.

Director John Davis said there is a great demand for retrained nurses. For nurses who have been out of the nursing field for several years there is a refresher course being offered. The vocational nurse training course will take in a six-hour day, and will run for a whole year, or about 1600 hours. Some clinical practicing will be held at the Edgemore Geriatrics hospital in Santee.

Some of these classes are now being conducted, according to Davis, but a new class will start in September. Also beginning in September will be three classes set up for nursing aides. These will be for the short term, about 250 hours or about 10 to 13 weeks.

Of particular interest is an academic class, set for daytime, for students who have to work nights. This class, to be held in the Church of God, El Cajon (760 Palm Ave.) will feature English, history, math, and social science.

12,500 Expected At High Schools In This District

The Grossmont Union High School district board of trustees recently heard reports on student registration and pre-school faculty meetings in preparation for the opening of school on Sept. 11. Estimated enrollment of the seven high schools of the district will reach 12,500.

Superintendent Lewis Smith announced that the Legislature has provided funds for California Cadet Corps uniforms which had been lacking during the last two years. The Cadet Corps program is in operation at Helix, Grossmont, El Cajon Valley High, El Capitan, and Granite Hills, while Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista have Civil Air Patrol units in operation.

The board approved a contract for noneductible student accident insurance covering medical expenses up to $500. Participation will be on a voluntary basis by parents and no coverage will be provided students except when desired and paid for by parents. This program was formerly financed by district funds, but was one of the items which had to be cut because of a shortage of operating revenues.

The board also learned that the Bank of America N.T. & S.A. had purchased $1,500,000 in bonds with an average interest rate of 3.779. Proceeds will be used to finance construction of additions to El Cajon Valley High School, Grossmont, Mt. Miguel, and Helix high Schools.

CONDUCTOR DAN LEWIS

Founder-Conductor Of Civic Youth Orchestra Joining New College

Dan Lewis, founder-conductor of the San Diego Civic Youth Orchestra, and since 1959 director of the Alaska Festival of Music, Anchorage, will join the faculty of Grossmont College in September. College President John S. Hansen has announced.

Lewis will teach college music and work at least part time in continuing some phase of his high school work. Mr. Lewis has previously served as first violinist of the San Diego String Quartet and the Modern Arts Quartet.

He has been either concert master or assistant concert master of the San Diego Symphony from 1947-1959 and has studied abroad, having received a Fulbright Scholarship and a Howard Foundation Grant in 1959 which allowed an opportunity for study in Europe. While in Europe he was at Munich, Germany, and helped conduct a fellowship with Eugen Jockum at the Hochschule fur Musik.

Prior to his college appointment, Lewis was head of the music department at Helix High School.

Regarding his new assignment, Mr. Lewis has stated the formation of the Grossmont College will help greatly to meet the educational demand for higher education. The music courses the college will offer under his direction will be comparable to the lower division courses offered in major educational institutions in Southern California.

Mr. Lewis is married and the father of six children, Daniel, 16, Stephen, 14, Larry, 9, Ralph,

LAWRENCE CURTIS

Clarinetists Lawrence Curtis, former assistant band director at the University of Redlands and a graduate of San Diego State College, is taking over as band director at the new Monte Vista high school this fall.

Curtis who holds a Master's Degree in Music from Redlands, also opened up the Clairemont Mesa High School when it began operation.

He said he hopes to have a maximum size band by the second year.

Chet Slagley joins Curtis in the new music department. Slagley will be in charge of vocal music.

FOR 7TH GRADERS

Junior Highs Plan Sept. 8 Orientation

Junior High "orientation day" will be held Sept. 8 for the new seventh graders who will be attending La Mesa Junior High and Spring Valley Junior High.

Due to a very tight schedule for construction of the new Parkway Junior High, there will be an "orientation day" at that school on the first day of school, Sept. 11, according to Garth Hanchett, principal. Earl Brown, principal of Spring Valley Junior High, and Howard Neff, principal of La Mesa Junior High, said entering graders will meet from 10:15 a.m. to 12 noon.

During the day, students will become acquainted with the buildings, their new teachers and student officers. The event will start with an assembly program followed by a "regular" day's schedule compressed into a few hours. Each class will be in session for only a few minutes, but the schedule will allow children to become well orientated with places and routines of their new school.

SEPT. 11 IS IT

Regular classes for all junior high school pupils within the district, with minor exceptions, will begin Monday, Sept. 11.

School buses will run a regular schedule for all La Mesa Junior High and Spring Valley

Junior High seventh graders during "orientation day." To avoid missing buses, students are urged to be at bus stops one-half hour before the program is to start at their school. In general, bus stops will be the same used by junior high students last year.

There will be no bus transportation for Parkway Junior High since all students attending will be within walking distance in accordance with district formulas.

Due to continued curtailment in bus service required by lack of operating funds, buses will transport only those students living more than a mile and three-quarters from the school grounds. Regular bus schedules for the fall will be announced soon.

Additional information regarding "orientation day" may be had by calling the schools: La Mesa Junior High, HO 6-4137; Spring Valley Junior High, HO 6-4141; Parkway Junior High, HO 6-4146.

This year's California State Fair rodeo in Sacramento will feature 325 head of the finest horses, bulls, steers, roping calves and bucking broncos in the West during the 12-day run of the show, August 30 through September 10.

Well-Known Local Artist To Teach At New College

Marjorie Hyde, nationally known local artist and chairman of the Grossmont High School art department for the past 10 years has been appointed to the faculty of Grossmont College for this September. Grossmont College President John S. Hansen announced that Miss Hyde will teach history and appreciation of art, painting materials and methods, drawing and composition, and life drawing (evening class) and related courses.

Previous to her appointment to the Grossmont College Miss Hyde had served as an instructor of art at Contra Costa Junior College and for three summer sessions as instructor of exhibit at the Museum of Contemporary Crafts in New York City, the Los Angeles County Museum, the Art Center in La Jolla and the San Diego Fine Arts Gallery. She has had works reproduced in Class Horizons, Woman's Day, the Los Angeles Times, and Point magazine.

Regarding her association with Grossmont College Miss Hyde has stated: "I believe the community college can and should provide opportunity for adults in the community to pursue studies that are more challenging than hobby activities and richer, deeper, and more lasting in nature than amusement. I refer to studies in areas that perhaps have no immediate practical use, but provide for self-enrichment and inner growth."

Miss Hyde resides at 7094 Stanford Ave., La Mesa.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS
Since chrysanthemums are very susceptible to termites or borers in the roots, you can take out an insurance policy on them by treating the soil in the early fall with a safe ether product. The one I have in mind is sufficiently powerful to destroy the termites or borers in the roots of the chrysanthemums without injuring the plants.

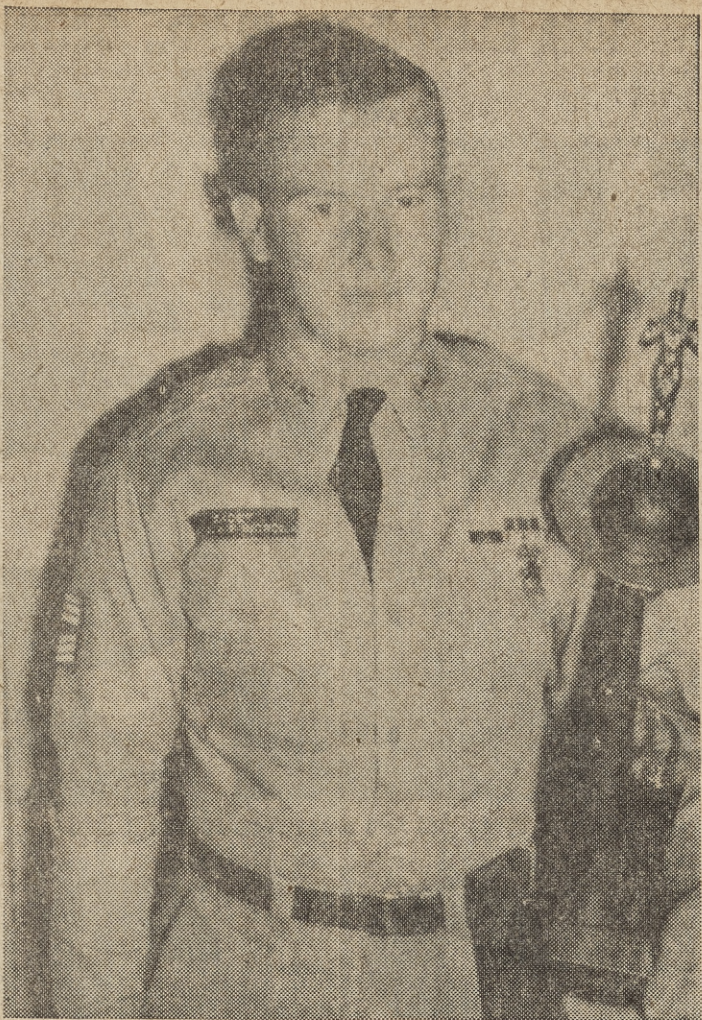

PREVENTIVE TREATMENT
This definitely is a "preventive" treatment. It kills the termites in the roots before they have had time to do much (if any) damage. If you wait and give the termites time to undermine the health of the plant the stalk dries out and eventually the sap, which is some what in the nature of a reserve supply of vitality, may reach the top and keep it green for a period of time, eventually the entire plant will collapse before it comes to a state of bloom. Treat the chrysanthemum bed now.

If you would like to have my Chrysanthemum Bulletin, write me in care of this newspaper, enclosing a 4c stamp.

Mt. Miguel Teachers Honored By Luncheon
The entire teaching staff of Mt. Miguel High School attended a buffet luncheon given in their honor Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. George Cremer, president of the Mt. Miguel PTA. The affair also featured swimming in the Cremer pool.

The luncheon was prepared and served by members of the PTA board, under the direction of Mrs. Lyle Stumbaugh, hospitality chairman.

Cadet Coyle W. Turner with trophy

La Presa Youth Picked As CAP Cadet Of Year

A La Presa boy, 17, won over 125 San Diego County cadets competing in the First Annual Outstanding Cadet of the Year Contest. Cadet/MSgt. Coyle W. Turner of 761 Paraiso Ave., La Presa Colony was named outstanding cadet at the Aerospace Awards Banquet at the Kona Kai on Shelter Island on Aug. 23 at 7 p.m.

He received his trophy, the first one ever given in this area, from Maj. Arnold M. Baron, air inspector, Civil Air Patrol group three, Santee.

Charles W. Brown, chairman of the awards committee, said of Turner:

"His military bearing, intelligence, appearance and ability to remain unruffled during interrogation won the admiration of our entire group and gave us insight into the great service that the CAP is performing for our nation and its youth."

A June 1961 Mt. Miguel high school graduate, Turner plans to enter the air force eventually. This summer he has been working with his father, a Spring Valley-La Presa contractor.

Turner is a member of Cadet Squadron 55 stationed at Santee.

University Of California Extension Announces Fall Schedule Of Classes

University of California Extension, San Diego's downtown university, is now accepting enrollments for its fall 1961 program of evening classes for adults. The classes are open to all adults regardless of previous educational background.

duction to Home Furnishings to Play Production.

Although most of University Extension's courses are held at Roosevelt Junior High school, others are held at various locations throughout San Diego County as a convenience to residents. In the La Jolla area most of the classes are held on the campus of the University of California at San Diego.

Free catalogs are now available at the University Extension office, 1221 Fourth Ave., San Diego. Enrollments are now being accepted in the same location either in person or by mail. Most classes begin the week of September 18.

Dramatist Gerrish Joins Grossmont College Faculty

Mr. Martin Gerrish, who was director of the highly successful Fresno Community Theatre, directing in particular Pygmalion and Death of a Salesman, has been appointed to the faculty at Grossmont College. Mr. Gerrish has had extensive acting and directing experience at the University of Maine, Camden Hills Summer Theatre, University of Arizona, University of Louisville, Tucson, (Arizona), Ruskin (Florida), and Berea (Kentucky).

Mr. Gerrish recently appeared in the lead role of Maverick Brander in the San Diego State Aztec Theatre production of A Texas Steer.

"Mr. Gerrish will bring to Grossmont College not only a wealth of experience but also a sincere dedication to the values and purpose of theatre work and skill in all phases of theatre production," observed Mr. John S. Hansen, Grossmont College president. "I feel we are extremely fortunate in having such a capable and enthusiastic person on our faculty."

STUDENTS TO ACT
"Several student productions are planned for this initial year of operation which will serve to acquaint the community with the work being done in the college," Mr. Gerrish announced. "The Drama group will present at least two plays, one in the November-December period and another in the February-March period. Selection of the plays will depend on many factors; facilities, student interest, money. Being new to the area I do not know what will be available in the way of speech contests, one act play contests, or debate tournaments, but if at all possible Grossmont College will participate in any that are presented. Our aim is to make Grossmont College an outstanding member of the Speech Arts field in the San Diego area."

Mr. Gerrish and his wife reside at 10272 Gaul Way, Spring Valley, with their son, Martin, 14.
